Dear Kaleigh Lowe,

I can confirm that consent has been provided. I have sent letters out to all these residents, who have responded asking me email planning to register their objection for the purpose of publication and representation.

Please proceed with the registration of the objections.

Kind regards,

Marco Longhi MP

Thank you for forwarding residents comments on the Draft Dudley Local Plan to us. However in order to make sure that we have residents consent to publish their name when the representations are made public and hold their contact details on our database under GDPR. We kindly ask that you make the residents aware that they need to respond directly to us by sending their comments to planning.policy@dudley.gov.uk by 5pm 22nd December. This will allow us to register the representations as being duly made as at the present time we cannot accept these representations.

Alternatively if you can confirm that these residents consent to having their name published and details held on our database then we can process the representations.
